STRONGER TOGETHER

FEDERATION OF HOSPITAL AND UNIVERSITY EMPLOYEES AT YALE 1199/SEIU ORGANIZING COMMITTEE AND LOCALS 34 AND 35

Both Yale University and Yale New-Haven Hospital are world-class institutions.
But only one provides world-class wages and benefits...

Secret Ballot Union Election Will Take Place Dec. 20-21

The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) has set Wednesday and Thursday, December 20-21 as the dates for a secret-ballot union representation election. The balloting will be conducted by the NLRB at the times and locations listed here. All employees in the job classifications listed on the reverse side of this bulletin are eligible to vote.

If a majority of employees vote "Yes," we will finally have the union we've all been working so hard to win.

The hospital has already made claims about the union that are not true. But the central issue in this campaign remains the same:

Are employees of Yale-New Haven Hospitals entitled to the same voice on the job and the same wages, pensions and health benefits as our union co-workers who do the same jobs we do at Yale University?

The only question we should be asking ourselves remains:

Shouldn't ALL health care workers receive world-class wages and benefits?

And the answer is still the same:

We deserve no less!
